BLUEPRINT SAUVIGNON BLANC VINTAGE 2020, NAPA VALLEY

ACCOLADES

93 Points 🌟🌟

“Among the many high-pointed Sauvignon Blancs in this issue, the Lail Blueprint is, to our palates, the most polished, classically crafted of a very good lot. Its refined aromas and flavors are both subtle on the one hand and very much on point in a complex manner on the other. It does not miss a beat varietally yet it also does not scream it out, and its richness is always an important adjunct without taking center stage. There is plenty of energy to the wine, and it seems poised for many years of rewarding growth and increased sophistication.”

WINEMAKER NOTES

“Blueprint Sauvignon Blanc in vintage 2020 had additional barrel influence, resulting in a broader and creamier demeanor. It shows intense aromas of stone fruits, white flowers, and pear. The texture is richly layered, with flavors of vanilla, melons and citrus. It is delightfully vibrant and fresh, yet with an extra dimension of complexity and varietal completeness. This will be a fun wine to watch as it develops, in the bottle and in the glass.”

OUR STORY

Our story began in 1879 when Robin Daniel Lail's great-granduncle, Gustave Niebaum, pioneered fine winemaking in the Napa Valley when he founded Inglenook Winery. Inglenook was passed down to Robin's grandfather and then to her father, John Daniel Jr., a true innovator and wine industry leader who produced legendary wines. In 1995, after years working with other Napa Valley icons (Robert Mondavi, Bill Harlan, Christian Moueix), Robin's dream of creating her own extraordinary wines set flight when she and her daughters, Erin and Shannon, assembled a multifaceted team of talent and set out on her own by launching Lail Vineyards. Today, the venture carries forward the stories and patina of over 135 years of winemaking into the 21st Century. The family continues its passionate quest to produce the very finest wines from the blend of its ingredients – the land, the seasons, the winemaking team, and the spirit of the generations who led the way.
